

KENYA DIG IT?

5k Run/Walk

WHEN: April 2, 2011 at 9:00am

WHERE: ASU Tempe Campus, SRC Field

WHY: To raise money for a water project in Kenya

WHO: You and Engineers Without Borders

HOW MUCH: Early Registration through March 16th

ASU Student:$15 Non-ASU Student:$25

Register at www.kenyadigit.stayclassy.org

For more information about the project or organization, contact asuewb@gmail.com

ENGINEERS WITHOUT BORDERS-USA
ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY
STUDENT CHAPTER

The Engineers Without Borders Arizona State University chapter is starting a new project in the Bondo-Rarieda District in Kenya. Goals for the program include helping to create a stable water source for the community by installing rainwater catchment systems. In addition, the chapter plans to work on a gray water sanitation project and make improvements to the community's existing dam.