Erwin Chemerinsky

Founding Dean and Distinguished Professor of Law
University of California, Irvine School of Law

Erwin Chemerinsky is one of the nation's top experts in constitutional law, federal practice, civil rights and civil liberties, and appellate litigation. He is the author of seven books, the latest being "The Conservative Assault on the Constitution." Chemerinsky's casebook, "Constitutional Law," is one of the most widely read law textbooks in the country. He has also written nearly 200 law review articles in journals such as the "Harvard Law Review," "Michigan Law Review," "Northwestern Law Review," "University of Pennsylvania Law Review," "Stanford Law Review" and "Yale Law Journal."

Chemerinsky frequently argues appellate cases, including matters before the U.S. Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Appeals, and regularly serves as a commentator on legal issues for national and local media. He holds a J.D. from Harvard Law School and a B.S. from Northwestern University.

Box lunches will be served.
