Have you ever thought about applying for a Fulbright to teach or conduct research abroad?

The 2020 Fulbright Scholar competition is now open, with applications due in September. Applications submitted during this year’s competition is for research and/or teaching abroad to take place during 2021-2022 academic year.

Come learn more about the Fulbright Scholars program and strategies for applying. In a special workshop session hosted on April 15th and April 23rd, Karen Engler-Weber, ASU's Fulbright Liaison will discuss different award options available for faculty, academics and administrators. Additionally, you'll learn about the application process, important strategies for applying and ASU resources available to support your Fulbright goals.

This is a great session to attend if you are considering applying this year or in the future!
