The New Faculty Advisory Committee (NFAC) presents:

Managing your lab group: Best practices

Friday, April 17th 12-1:30pm

Zoom: https://asu.zoom.us/j/7360482628

Dr. Blake Ashforth
Regents Professor & Horace Steele Arizona Heritage Chair
W. P. Carey Management and Entrepreneurship

Abstract:
You’ve assembled a brilliant group of people for your lab: now what? This workshop will be highly interactive, as we discuss best practices (do’s and don’ts) for managing your lab. Specific topics will include creating a constructive lab culture, motivating and setting expectations, coaching and delegating, and mitigating conflicts.

Biography:
Blake Ashforth is a Regents Professor in the Management & Entrepreneurship department at the W. P. Carey School of Business, Arizona State University. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Toronto. His research concerns the ongoing dance between individuals and organizations, including socialization and work adjustment, identity and identification, respect and dignity, and the links among individual-, group-, and organization-level phenomena. Recent work has focused on dirty work, ambivalence, and anthropomorphism. Blake is a Fellow of the Academy of Management, and a winner of the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Academy’s OB Division and the Distinguished Scholar Award from the Academy’s MOC Division.
