

Commission on the Status of Women

Arizona State University

CSW Staff Mentoring & Development Program Now Accepting Applications for Summer 2022 Cohort for Prospective Mentees & New Mentors Information Sessions March 4th & 24th

The ASU Commission on the Status of Women Staff Mentoring & Development Program pairs experienced and excelling staff members with staff who are interested in developing their career and leadership skills. The program is structured to provide support, networking opportunities, and professional development training to help staff members develop their careers and to become effective contributors to the New American University.

The program is free and is open to all staff members at ASU.

Complete program information and application materials and application materials are now available on the CSW website.

This is a great opportunity to take that next step in your career!

The ASU CSW Office is now accepting applications for the Summer 2022 Cohort of the CSW Staff Mentoring Program, which will run from July 2022-January 2023.

Applications are due on April 13th.

Special program information sessions will be held on March 4th via ZOOM for both mentees and new mentors. In these separate sessions, Karen Engler-Weber, Program Director for the Commission will discuss the program structure and the application process, and will answer any questions you might have about the program.

Attendance at an information session is not required, but encouraged.

Application Materials & Information Session Registration