

Commission on the Status of Women

Arizona State University

ASU Professional Development Conference Now Accepting Workshop Proposals Extended Deadline: June 23, 2023

The ASU Commission on the Status of Women is pleased to announce the dates for the 16th annual ASU Professional Development Conference. The 2023 conference is scheduled to take place on Wed, October 11th (online) and Thurs, October 12 (In-Person at Tempe campus).

The goal of the ASU Professional Development Conference is to provide readily-accessible information, resources, and strategies to help individuals succeed in their current position and in their long-term career. The conference offers a variety of exciting variety of workshop sessions covering topics related to career development, workplace skills, leadership training, supervisory training, financial planning, sustainability, DEI, work/life balance, among many others. Additionally, this year's conference will feature a curated set of sessions focused on the U.S. Surgeon General's Five Essentials for Workplace Wellness. It promises to be a fantastic event with something for everyone!

The conference is open to all ASU faculty, staff and students and is free of charge to attend!

Interested in Presenting? Submit a Conference Proposal!

Have you ever thought about presenting? Do you have skills, experience, and expertise that you would like to share? Consider being a presenter for this year's ASU Professional Development Conference. The ASU Conference is the largest university-provided development conference in the nation. It's a great opportunity!

Complete the attached proposal and return it to the CSW Office by June 23rd.

More information will be available on the CSW website soon.

Questions?

Contact Karen Engler-Weber, Program Director for the CSW at Karen.Engler@asu.edu